

LINDA FISHER

Linda Fisher is Professor of Languages Education at the Faculty of Education, University of Cambridge. Her current research interests are in multilingualism, multilingual identity, creativity in language learning, metaphor in relation to belief schemata, second language teacher education, motivation, and the academic and social integration of English as an Additional Language learners.

She has led and co-led a number of large research projects, including as Co-Investigator and Education Strand Lead on the MEITS project (Multilingualism Empowering Individuals Transforming Societies) and as co-investigator on Creative Multilingualism, both large grant Arts and Humanities Research Council-funded projects. She has published widely in the field of language education, including on policy, teaching learning and EAL.